

UNVEILING OF REMEMBRANCE PLAQUE
AT HERITAGE CENTRE

On Sunday 7th October 2007, the Carrick on Suir Branch of ONET had the honour of hosting, unveiling a blessing service of a Remembrance Plaque at the Heritage Centre, Main Street. The service was well attended by the people of the town and by invited guests including members from other ONET branches throughout the Country. The large attendance included Irish Vietnam Veterans Association, British Legion, Irish Naval Association, RDF, PDF, Slua Mhuire, Irish Red Cross, members of the local Fire Service, River Rescue Service, local business sector and public representatives including Town Council Mayor David Shee. The Blessing Service was jointly carried out by Fr. Pat Cooney PP and Rev. George Cliffe. On behalf of the Branch and ONET, secretary and PRO Paddy Rockett would like to thank sincerely all who attended and participated in any way. A special thanks to the Heritage Centre for allowing the Carrick on Suir Branch to site the plaque in the grounds, particularly Patsy Fitzgerald for all his help. Finally, the secretary and PRO would like to thank Caroline O'Brien of O'Brien Monumental who very kindly donated the plaque to the branch and Ormonde Furnishings for a kind donation.
